Items such as tinned, canned and packet goods are most welcome, along with treats such as nice crisps and biscuits. During the service there will be an opportunity to bring your Harvest gifts to the altar. If you prefer to make a monetary donation, at this time, these gifts will go to Christian Aid. Please notify Hayley of your church's harvest festival date.

Sun Oct 6th 12.30pm – Sunday Lunch in the Upper Narthex in St Michaels. With the departure of Ruth and George, Mark Green has kindly offered to take over running our Sunday Lunches. These will now not always be a roast dinner, but the menu will be available in advance. All are welcome with a suggested donation of £10 per adult and £6 per child. If you would like to come please sign the notice by the door before Wed 2nd October. If you cannot do this please let the parish office know prior to the 2nd. Menu: ham, new potatoes, roasted parsnips, roasted carrots, roasted onion, roasted pumpkin: Desert: homemade apple turnover, cream or custard.

Revs Elizabeth and Peter, our curates, will be entering their third year of training after returning from holiday. This is a time for them to stretch their wings and as is usual they will be starting a series of placements with a view to returning at the end of the year. Please continue to pray for them at this stage of their ministerial development as we wish them well.

The Annual Coffee Morning at Thornley House, Thornley Drive Teignmouth, Thursday 12th October 2024 from 10.30am until 12.00pm. Various stalls, raffle plus nice coffee/biscuits. Everyone is welcome. All proceeds are going towards St. James Church Funds.

Open the Bible visit dates, 17th October at Bishopsteignton School; 18th October at Shaldon School; 5th December Bishopsteignton School; 6th December Shaldon School. Please contact Sue Harvey for more details.

Angela and family would like to thank everyone who was able to be with them at Eleanor's funeral and especially for all your prayers, love and support during this difficult time.

Readings

Jeremiah 11. 18-20

It was the Lord who made it known to me, and I knew; then you showed me their evil deeds. But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter. And I did not know it was against me that they devised schemes, saying, 'Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, let us cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name will no longer be remembered!' But you, O Lord of hosts, who judge righteously, who try the heart and the mind, let me see your retribution upon them, for to you I have committed my cause.

James 3. 13 - 4.3, 7-8a

Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth. Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you? You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order to spend what you get on your pleasures. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

Mark 9. 30-37

They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, 'The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him. Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the way?' But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.' Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, 'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.

Collect

Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you: pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself, and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
