Welcome to our churches

Sunday 29th September

St Michael the Archangel

St Michael's patronal weekend and 200th celebration anniversary.

Today, Sunday 29th September at 5.00pm, we welcome Bishop Mark Ryland to lead a St Michael's, 200th Year Service of Celebration. All welcome and everyone from across the Team is invited.

St Michael's Saturday 5th October 10.00am-2.00pm Annual Gift Day and Mini Fair. See additional Flyer for further details. Help still needed, if you can bake a cake, run a stall or help with refreshments please sign the list in the lower Narthex. Sunday 6th October Harvest Festival This year we will be supporting Teignmouth Community Larder. Items such as tinned, canned and packet goods are most welcome, along with treats such as nice crisps and biscuits. During the service there will be an opportunity to bring your Harvest gifts to the altar. If you prefer to make a monetary donation, at this time, these gifts will go to Christian Aid.

Sunday 6th October at 12.30pm – Sunday Lunch in the Upper Narthex in St Michaels. With the departure of Ruth and George, Mark Green has kindly offered to take over running our Sunday Lunches. These will now not always be a roast dinner, but the menu will be available in advance. All are welcome with a suggested donation of £10 per adult and £6 per child. If you would like to come please sign the notice by the door before Wednesday 2nd October. If you cannot do this please let the parish office know prior to the 2nd. Menu: ham, new potatoes, roasted parsnips, roasted carrots, roasted onion, roasted pumpkin: Desert: homemade apple turnover, cream or custard.

St John's Bishopsteignton 19th October - Harvest Gift Day 10.00am until 12.00pm. Come and look around the church and enjoy coffee and cake. On Sunday 20th October Harvest Thanksgiving Service at 11.00am, donations to HITS (Homeless in Teignmouth) Foodbank of non-perishable goods will be welcomed at this service.

Revs Elizabeth and Peter, our curates, will be entering their third year of training after returning from holiday. This is a time for them to stretch their wings and as is usual they will be starting a series of placements with a view to returning at the end of the year. Please continue to pray for them at this stage of their ministerial development as we wish them well.

Thursday 10th October 2024 from 10.30am until 12.00pm Annual Coffee Morning at Thornley House, Thornley Drive Teignmouth. Various stalls, raffle plus nice coffee/biscuits. Everyone is welcome. All proceeds are going towards St James Church Funds.

Open the Bible visit dates, 17th October at Bishopsteignton School; 18th October at Shaldon School; 5th December Bishopsteignton School; 6th December Shaldon School. Please contact Sue Harvey for more details.

Readings for St Michael the Archangel

Genesis 28. 10-17

Jacob left Beer-sheba and went towards Haran. He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place. And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven; and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. And the LORD stood beside him^[a] and said, 'I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring; and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed^[d] in you and in your offspring. Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.' Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, 'Surely the LORD is in this place—and I did not know it!' And he was afraid, and said, 'How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.'

Revelation 12.7-12

And war broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought back, but they were defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. The great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, proclaiming, ‘Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Messiah, for the accuser of our comrades has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. But they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they did not cling to life even in the face of death. Rejoice then, you heavens and those who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you with great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!’

John1. 47-end

When Jesus saw Nathanael coming towards him, he said of him, ‘Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!’ Nathanael asked him, ‘Where did you come to know me?’ Jesus answered, ‘I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.’ Nathanael replied, ‘Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!’ Jesus answered, ‘Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.’ And he said to him, ‘Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.’

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

We praise and thank you, O Christ, for this sacred feast: for here we receive you, here the memory of your passion is renewed, here our minds are filled with grace, and here a pledge of future glory is given, when we shall feast at that table where you reign with all your saints for ever.
